FOUR TOWN OF WEBSTER OFFICIALS SWORN INTO OFFICE AT JANUARY CEREMONY

*Town Supervisor to serve one-year term;
Town Councilmembers and Town Justice to serve three-year terms*

Webster, NY – At a swearing-in ceremony prior to the annual Webster Organizational meeting, four town officials were sworn into Town office on Friday, January 2, 2026. Alex Scialdone has been sworn in as Webster Town Supervisor, Nick Hunter and Garrett Wagner as Town Councilmembers, and Tom DiSalvo as Webster Town Justice.

This is Scialdone's first term as Webster Town Supervisor. He comes to the Town of Webster with decades of organizational management experience in the private sector. He is a longtime Webster resident. Scialdone will serve a one-year term.

Judge DiSalvo has served the Town of Webster as Town Justice since 2001. This is the first term of office for both Hunter and Wagner.

"Being elected to serve the Town of Webster is truly an honor," said Scialdone. "I am excited to work with Town officials, residents, and local organizations and businesses to keep Webster a vibrant and united community. My family is proud to call Webster our home, and it is a privilege to give back in a role that allows me to listen, lead, and stand up for every corner of our Town."

The Town of Webster has scheduled its January Town Board meetings for January 8 and January 22, due to the New Year's Day holiday. The regular first and third Thursday of the month model for Webster Town Board meetings will resume in February.
